

ILM – Level 3 Diploma for Managers

Course Content

The ILM Level 3 Diploma for managers aims to provide learners working in an organisation with the leadership and management knowledge and skills required to progress in their career and on to further study. When taken as part of the Team Leader/Supervisor apprenticeship standard the aim of this qualification is to support preparation for the End Point Assessment.

Who is the qualification for?

Ideal for professionals taking their first step into line management, or those with some experience of managing a team or project.

The learner must be in employment to take this qualification.

Benefits for individuals

- Develop a range of essential management skills applied and refined in a real working environment.
- Build the leadership capability to motivate teams and influence with confidence.
- Gain a broad understanding of key management and leadership theory to underpin and support growth and performance.

Benefits for employers and educators

- Targeted learning and development in complete alignment with the latest apprenticeship standards – ensuring all learning is relevant, with no gaps in knowledge.
- Maximise learner's confidence and readiness for End Point Assessment.
- Reward learner's engagement and drives completion with ILM digital credentials.

Entry Qualifications

Typically 5 GCSEs grade C/4 or higher including maths and English. The learner must be working in a management/team leader or supervisor role, with operational/project responsibilities or responsibility for managing a team to deliver a clearly defined outcome. They must provide direction, instruction and guidance to ensure the achievement of goals set.

What opportunities for progression are there?

There is the opportunity to move onto higher level 5/7 management courses

Fee Information

£5000

Course Duration

18 months, with a minimum of 580 hours of off the job training that must be recorded and evidenced by the employer/employee. Delivery will be mainly in the work place with day release taking place once a month.

Contact

Jane Mycock on 0161 908 6639

Email: jane.mycock@tameside.ac.uk

Julie McLeod on 0161 908 6746

Email: Julie.mcleod@tameside.ac.uk