

Bullying and Harassment and Sexual Misconduct non-Disclosure Agreements (NDA) Statement

Tameside college is fully committed to fostering an inclusive and safe environment where all individuals are respected, valued and able to reach their full potential. We stand firm in our commitment to preventing bullying, harassment and sexual misconduct in all forms. We believe that every individual has the right to work and engage in an environment free from discrimination, abuse, or inappropriate conduct.

The College has signed an endorsement to confirm that our organisation does not and will not enter into any Non-Disclosure Agreements or any form of contractual documents (for staff and students) that would prevent or restrict any student or staff member from disclosing information about an allegation of harassment and/or sexual misconduct involving one or more students. This is also in compliance with the Office for Students (OfS) requirements under condition of registration E.10.

All staff and students can report bullying, harassment, sexual misconduct, racism or discrimination by using the following methods.

Students: harassment@tameside.ac.uk

Staff: HumanResources@tameside.ac.uk
